Dear Dr. Moises Morejon-Garcia:

On behalf of the Alliance for the Prudent Use of Antibiotics (APUA), we are pleased to send our congratulations and official notification that APUA – Cuba has been selected to receive the 2013 APUA Chapter Leadership Award. This annual award recognizes a chapter that has shown extraordinary leadership in promoting the prudent use of antibiotics with the goal to contain antibiotic resistance.

The APUA Awards Committee and leadership agree that your Chapter's activities in the areas of research, prescriber training and information, expert advice and media information, collaboration with other organizations, conferences and poster sessions is worthy of this special recognition. We are impressed by the scope and activities of your membership and commend the development of sub-chapters throughout Cuba.

The Chapter Leadership Award will be presented at a dinner and award ceremony in conjunction with ID Week in San Francisco, California the week of October 26, 2013. We would be most happy if you were able to attend this dinner but recognize the difficulties of international travel.

Congratulations again and thank you for your exceptional work and time commitments. We appreciate your longstanding partnership with APUA in "preserving the power of antibiotics." Honoring your chapter for its exceptional accomplishments will be our great pleasure.

Sincerely,

Stuart B. Levy, MD
On behalf of the
APUA Board of Directors
